

Christmas Dinner Mexican Style

Beef and Chili.—Then More Beef and Chili. Old Timer Recalls "Feast" at Sutter's Fort, Back In 1845.

By J. F. McLAUGHLIN (United Press Staff Correspondent) SACRAMENTO, Calif., Dec. 19.—(U.P.)—Turkey is plentiful this year and most California tables will be loaded with holiday delicacies—but it wasn't always so.

Back in 1845, for instance, a small group had gathered behind the adobe walls that were to become world famous as Sutter's Fort, the hub of the gold country.

Captain Sutter was there and other hardy pioneers such as John Bidwell and P. B. Reading. A Christmas celebration wasn't so easy in those days, but Captain Sutter had insisted on a Christmas dinner. The cookery book had promised to do his best.

Telling of the event later, an unnamed member of this party wrote: "We took our seats at the table with expectancy and no little curiosity inasmuch as our stores were limited. The first course was beef soup garnished with frijoles, chile Colorado and garlic; the second course was roast beef; the third course was baked beef pie; the fourth was stewed beef and the fifth course was fried beef garnished with the same condiments as the first, but the chile Colorado dominated all others, and our hostesses were aglow with heat and our stomachs were like a boiling cauldron. We were all very anxious for the plum pudding to counteract the heat created by the red pepper.

"The cook soon brought it in with an air of self-congratulation. And such a pudding! In its construction the cook had used common beef tallow, liberally, and filled it with sour grapes and seasoned it unsparingly with chile Colorado, black pepper, salt and garlic. He also had made a sort of sauce with the panocha sugar and also dosed that liberally with chile and black peppers.

"Captain Sutter was a singular man about his food. He would partake of anything set before him without a remark, but this dish bothered him. We had all been helped plentifully to the dish, but after taking a mouthful or two we were as perplexed as the captain and gazed at each other and at the dish in silent astonishment until Reading broke the silence by asking: "Cook what is it?"

"Why, sir," replied the cook, "it is a regular Christmas pudding, Mexican style."

"And so ended our Christmas dinner at Sutter's Fort in 1845." So, whatever Californians have for their Christmas dinner, 1932, it will probably taste better than that famous Christmas pudding, "Mexican style."

Highways to Be Named

ATLANTA—(U.P.)—A movement has started here to name the highway from Warm Springs, Ga., to Washington, the Franklin D. Roosevelt highway, a name already given to the 75-mile stretch of pavement from here south to the scene of the president-elect's "Lift the White House" on Pine mountain. A companion movement to beautify the highway also has been launched.

Delegates of Tax Reduction League Gather

Hundred Representatives Hear Speakers in Los Angeles State Aims

Supporting a five-point program for the reform of current state and county taxation laws, 100 delegates from units of the Los Angeles County Tax Reduction League attended a dinner Thursday night, December 15, at the Clark hotel, Los Angeles, heard addresses by realty leaders, and received assurances from incumbent and newly elected assemblymen that tax reduction demands would have support.

Montaville Flowers, chairman of the central council, outlined the league's program to the gathering, and Elmer Nelson, professor of finance at the University of Southern California, discussed asserted excessive authority granted county supervisors.

Other speakers were Francis Potter, member of the taxation committee, Los Angeles Realty Board; C. Don Fields, assemblyman; Glen Willaman, secretary-treasurer of the California Realty Association; and John Rawls, assemblyman from this district.

Declaring that he had no quarrel with incumbent supervisors, Professor Nelson told hearers that he merely criticized the system under which they function. He then explained that the five supervisors of Los Angeles county have during their term of office spent two million dollars more than eight states of the union equaling Los Angeles county in population, and that power of county supervisors is greater than the combined authority of the 12 elected officials of these eight states.

Los Angeles County Tax Reduction league, according to Mrs. Anna Barnett, secretary of the local unit, sponsor the following five demands: (1) Limitation of property taxes. (2) Modification of present tax delinquency laws. (3) Creation of a county board of budget review. (4) Repeal of the acquisition and improvement act of 1925 (known as the Mattoon act). (5) Equalization of taxes on public utilities.

Suggested plans for budget review include the election of five members, one from each supervisorial district, these men to serve without salary except for time they are actually called to spend in the review of asserted unfair tax regulations. The league believes that a petition signed by ten taxpayers should be sufficient to demand consideration from the proposed board.

Unemployed Aid Since May 15th Exceeds Million

County Charity Superintendent Says County Help 23,000 In 41 Cities

Forty-one incorporated cities of the county, including Torrance, have shared in the benefits of the county's relief program by which 23,000 persons, having more than $1,050,189.91 in unemployment and wages since May 15, it was revealed last week in a survey made by W. R. Harriman, superintendent of charities.

Three hundred work projects were created under the employment plan evolved and which was approved by the supervisors last May 12. The program was to provide work for many persons in need but who were determined not to become county welfare cases. In keeping with this plan, the county stabilization bureau has selected 50 per cent of all persons given work from a list of names registered with them, certifying these names to the welfare bureau upon requisitions for labor, it was explained.

"Our plan," Harriman said, "has enabled us, for the benefit of the state structure, to balance the distribution of work between two distinct types of needy persons. One-half goes to persons who would become county welfare cases if they were not given employment. The other half goes to persons who are county welfare cases, to continue to support in terms of rent, food or clothing if they did not receive remunerative employment."

"The work has been rotated in order to give work to as many different persons as possible, those working having averaged about 13 days' employment a month to $320 a day, or $12 a month. While this amount is scarcely enough for any family to subsist on, its practical effect is to give the head of a family a few dollars to keep going on while he is looking around for something else. It is stimulus and a means, not an end."

Installation of a larger telephone switchboard in the new Torrance health center was authorized this week by the county board of supervisors, when informed of the additional requirements on account of the branch welfare department's plan to occupy the same building Saturday, December 24, was fixed as the completion date for the changes to be made in partitions to provide the additional space necessary. The supervisors approved a supplemental contract with the Standard Cabinet Works for $23,500 to cover the cost. The changes were made on recommendation of W. M. Davidson, chief mechanical engineer.

The supervisors this week accepted the plumbing, heating and ventilating installations made by Lohman Brothers, on Engineer Davidson's recommendation. Although the work was not completed within the time specified in the contract, it was through no fault of Lohman Brothers, Davidson informed the board, and damages were waived.

Cellophane Wrapped Grapes. LODI, Calif.—(U.P.)—Flaming red and purple Tokay grapes from this region will go to eastern markets this winter wrapped in cellophane. Wrapping the bunches in cellophane heightened the color of the grapes and serves as a preservative.
